Election/Restrictions

1. Restriction to one of the following inventions is required under 35 U.S.C. 121:
  - I. Claims 1-12, drawn to a pulley pressure control system, classified in class 474, subclass 46.
  - II. Claims 13-19, drawn to a pulley pressure control system, classified in class 474, subclass 46.
  - III. Claims 20-29, drawn to a pulley pressure control system, classified in class 474, subclass 46.
  - IV. Claims 30-31, drawn to a pulley pressure control system, classified in class 474, subclass 46.
  - V. Claims 32-33, drawn to a pulley pressure control system, classified in class 474, subclass 46.
  - VI. Claims 34-35, drawn to a pulley pressure control system, classified in class 474, subclass 46.
  - VII. Claims 36-38, drawn to a pulley pressure control system, classified in class 474, subclass 46.

The inventions are distinct, each from the other because of the following reasons:

2. Inventions I through VII are unrelated. Inventions are unrelated if it can be shown that they are not disclosed as capable of use together and they have different modes of operation, different functions, or different effects (MPEP § 806.04, MPEP § 808.01). In the instant case the different inventions: Invention I individually regulates speed change displacement and compressive displacement; inventions II through VII require a second variable pulley; invention II individually regulates pressing and elastic force and switching between roles of a reference pulley and a follower pulley; invention III arbitrarily regulates a pressing force or an elastic force and supplies the pressing force or elastic force; invention IV holds axial torque of both input and output pulleys into high transmitting efficiency; invention V supplies a switching instruction to the switching device and pressure application devices give a follower function by applying the elastic force; invention VI regulates the pressing force and or the elastic force; invention VII enlarges an entire transmittable range of high transmission efficiency into more widened range in combination with the first and second speed ratio range.

3. Because these inventions are distinct for the reasons given above and the search required for Group I is not required for Groups II through VII, restriction for examination purposes as indicated is proper.

4. This application contains claims directed to the following patentably distinct species of the claimed invention: Species A, Figure 2; Species B, Figure 8; Species C Figure 10A; and Species D, Figure 11.

Applicant is required under 35 U.S.C. 121 to elect a single disclosed species for prosecution on the merits to which the claims shall be restricted if no generic claim is finally held to be allowable. Currently, there are no claims found to be generic.

Applicant is advised that a reply to this requirement must include an identification of the species that is elected consonant with this requirement, and a listing of all claims readable thereon, including any claims subsequently added. An argument that a claim is allowable or that all claims are generic is considered nonresponsive unless accompanied by an election.

Upon the allowance of a generic claim, applicant will be entitled to consideration of claims to additional species which are written in dependent form or otherwise include all the limitations of an allowed generic claim as provided by 37 CFR 1.141. If claims are added after the election, applicant must indicate which are readable upon the elected species. MPEP § 809.02(a).

Should applicant traverse on the ground that the species are not patentably distinct, applicant should submit evidence or identify such evidence now of record showing the species to be obvious variants or clearly admit on the record that this is the case. In either instance, if the examiner finds one of the inventions unpatentable over the prior art, the evidence or admission may be used in a rejection under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) of the other invention.

5. A telephone call was made to Thomas McKiernan on November 10, 2004 to request an oral election to the above restriction requirement, but did not result in an election being made.

Applicant is advised that the reply to this requirement to be complete must include an election of the invention to be examined even though the requirement be traversed (37 CFR 1.143).

Any inquiry concerning this communication or earlier communications from the examiner should be directed to Vicky A. Johnson whose telephone number is (703) 305-3013. The examiner can normally be reached on Monday-Friday (7:00a-3:30p).

Art Unit: 3682

If attempts to reach the examiner by telephone are unsuccessful, the examiner's supervisor, David A. Bucci can be reached on (703) 308-3668. The fax phone number for the organization where this application or proceeding is assigned is 703-872-9306.
